OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhus

CHRISTMAS CARDS certainly play a major role in Yule season action.

They begin flowing in several weeks before Christmas and some of the late starters are sure to come straggling in after the day has come and gone.

In some instances the cards provide the only contact with friends and relatives in a 12-month period.

Maybe sometimes the verses are a little sticky but that is incidental. The names on the cards are the main interest anyway.

What to do with the cards received generally presents a problem. Only just so many (if you are thataway inclined) can go on the mantle.

Then, of course, there is the guilt complex that develops when you hear from someone and that person is not on your list.

HONEST TO PETE, this Christmas card operation can become so complex that you wonder sometimes whether it is worth the chips.

There have been people we know who decided to forego the sending of cards. They felt the whole card bit had gotten out of hand.

But they only stayed out of it for one year.

They found that even without sending any they still received a whole raft of 'em.

Their conscience bothered them so much that the next year they were right back in the midst of the battle once again.

And they haven't missed a year since.

There is no question that there are many man and woman hours spent on the annual hassle. Some people insist on writing a little note on each card. This, we think, is commendable.

But it is time-consuming. Households that follow this practice are upset for a time as the deadline nears. Unless, of course, the home is better organized than ours.

We didn't mean to get so involved in this column about the harvest of Christmas cards but what brought it to mind was one of the late "stragglers" that we received four days after Christmas.

THE CARD was from a Campbell family and was originally mailed in ample time to get to our place long before Christmas, even by carrier pigeon.

And it was addressed properly.

But it had been returned to the writer.

The check mark in the little box on the envelope indicated "No such number."

Other unchecked reasons were "Moved, left no address"; "Moved, not forwardable" and "Address unknown".

There was also a little note written on the envelope in red ink by the sender. "Postmaster--This is the correct address--Please deliver."

CHANGING HATS--Campbell Fireman Richard T. Wixon (center) turns in his fire helmet to Fire Chief George Maxwell (left) while Police Chief John Morgan hands Wixon a police officer's cap. Marking the first time in this city's history that such a transfer has been made, Fireman Wixon, a member of the department for four years, this week became Police Officer Wixon.

Kermuth S. Carrington has replaced Wixon as a fireman. The city personnel office has announced that applications are now being accepted for firemen to go on the eligibility list after taking the examinations. Applicants must be between the ages of 19 and 30 and high school graduates with two years of English and one year of algebra. Salary range is $555 to $675 in five steps.

Hearing takes place on Monday for downtown

Residents and property owners in the areas that could be affected by any downtown redevelopment plan are urged by city officials to attend an informal public hearing next Monday, Jan. 17, called by the Planning Commission.

Answers will be sought at the hearing on such questions as what type of uses should be allowed; where should the commercial, office and high density zones be placed; and how should they be related to each other.

Another top question, according to Dick Hogan, planning director, is just what area should be included in any plans for downtown development.

Basically the area involved in the downtown plans extends from Winchester to Harrison, north to Latimer and south to Rincon. But such streets as Alice, Sunnyside and Kennedy on the south are also affected.

Those attending the hearing also will learn of the latest developments on the proposed downtown parking district which will provide parking spaces on both sides of Campbell Ave. from Winchester to Harrison.

Hogan also said that possibly the long-range plans for the civic center complex of the city will be presented at the meeting.

The hearing will be one of the items on the Planning Commission agenda at the regular commission meeting Monday, presided over by Hal Lee, who was named 1966 chairman at the last meeting.

NEW COMMISSIONER--Kelvin S. Young, 58, electrical contractor, was appointed by the City Council to the Planning Commission Monday night to fill the unexpired term of Homer Hyde who was appointed to the council. His term runs to Aug. 1, 1966.

Young, co-owner of McKinley-Young, electrical contractors, has resided for 18 years in Campbell. He and Mrs. Young live at 430 N. Central.

City gets tough ---

Campbell councilmen got tough on two counts Monday night.

In one action they directed their fire at the delay in the completion of the San Tomas Expressway, especially as it affects the Campbell and Budd intersections.

In the other they directed City Attorney Joe Bonacina to proceed with any necessary legal action to force E. F. DeVilbis, attorney, to comply with the conditions levied by the city in December, 1962. DeVilbis, at that time, was granted permission to convert a residence at 102 Hamilton (at Esther) into an office.

Under the city's present ordinance such a conversion would not be allowed. But DeVilbis got approval before the passage of the ordinance.

Bonacina, in asking for council direction,

You can't get 'em in town

It isn't so.

A news story that appeared in last week's Press which reported that the Campbell branch of Wells Fargo would issue car registrations this year as it had in the past was incorrect.

This year, the Department of Motor Vehicles has moved the registration office to the Cupertino branch of Wells Fargo because, according to officials, the need was greater there than in Campbell.

Gas station ordinance loses 3-2

By an anticipated split 3-2 vote, the City Council on Monday refused to adopt an ordinance that would force service stations in the future to be located only at intersections of two four-lane intersections or in shopping centers.

Mayor Charles Rose and Councilmen Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde voted against the adoption of the ordinance with Councilmen Bill Smeed and Ed Rogers on the other side.

The action by the council dropped the curtain for the time being at least on the long drawn out efforts of the city staff and members of the Planning Commission to control the locations of service stations and other outdoor business activities.

No discussion on the proposed ordinance took place Monday because, as one councilman put it, there had been ample time over the months the ordinance has been under fire for the councilmen to make up their minds.

In another action overruling the Planning Commission, the council by a 4-1 (Hyde dissenting) agreed to allow a driveway for entrance only from Winchester for the proposed drive-in restaurant to be located at 2275 Winchester Blvd. at El Caminito.

The property is owned by Bill Oltmann, who told the council that the condition imposed by the Planning Commission was not a "valid well-planned solution to the Winchester traffic problem" as maintained by Bill Wren, acting city engineer. Oltmann claimed that a more reasonable approach was the widening of Winchester to its ultimate width.

Editorial

City needs them both

City council elections will be held in Campbell on April 12 of this year. Soon it will be time for the candidates to announce their intentions for the two postitions that will be open this year.

We urge the two councilmen whose terms expire, Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde, to file for reelection.

If they file, as we hope they will, we will unreservedly support them for reelection. We are convinced that they have demonstrated their sincerity and ability by their service to our community.

We sincerely hope that this endorsement (perhaps a trifle premature inasmuch as neither councilman has indicated up to now what they intend to do) will not deter other prospective candidates from entering the race. That is not our intent.

We hope there will be several other candidates. This then would indicate interest on the part of the citizenry in the important function of city administration. And that is the way it should be.

But we have been in a position to closely observe Councilmen Doetsch and Hyde in their efforts to represent the people of this community in an impartial and fair manner.

That we have disagreed with them at times is only natural but never have we questioned their integrity and their dedication in carrying out their thankless jobs to the best of their ability.

Councilman Doetsch, as many of you recall, was elected four years ago on a write-in basis, the first time any councilman in this city's history had been elected in that manner.

His common sense and practical approach to the many and varied city problems has been refreshing. Such an approach is of extreme value to any city government and we consider Campbell fortunate in having such a man on the council.

We sincerely hope that Ralph decides to run again.

Councilman Hyde was not elected to the City Council. He was appointed to fill the unexpired term of former Councilman Bob McElroy who resigned in November because he was moving out of the city.

Although Hyde will have only served four months by election time, his value to the city cannot be underestimated.

Hyde was one of the original appointees to the Planning Commission and, except for a few months, he has served as planning commissioner up to the very day he was appointed to the council. His service on the Planning Commission covers more than ten years.

As a planning commissioner, Hyde demonstrated his ability, his interest and his dedication to the community in which he was born and grew up. No other person in this community can point to such a long perios of unselfish service.

We sincerely hope that Home files. This city needs him on its governing board.

City councilmen, as you know, receive no compensation for their time. They have to learn to adjust and balance demands for their time as councilmen against whatever full-time occupation they have and against the demands of family life, service clubs, fraternal obligations and whatever.

This part-time job of city councilman can and does become at times a seven-day-a-week time-consuming job.

Councilmen should have the ability to see difficult situations objectively, to understand clearly the facts and alternatives, and to make decisions and take action.

Taking action requires courage and leadership and comprehension of the city's over-all needs and general growth policy.

Many council decisions are unpopular with some segments of the population, even though the decisions are in the best public interest.

To do their job effectively the councilmen must have confidence in the city manager and work with him in carrying out the many projects of city government. They also must have a sound knowledge of the operation and functions of all the city departments.

What we have tried to convey to you is that the Campbell councilman today must be more than a mere politician, if he is to serve his community well.

We are convinced that Councilmen Doetsch and Hyde have met the requirements and they also recognize the responsibilities of the position.

We are well aware that there are many other residents of this city who are as qualified to serve as councilmen as these two men. There undoubtedly are some who would be even superior to Ralph and Homer.

What we are saying in effect, however, is that Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde have been tested under fire and have passed the tests in our book.

If they desire to serve again, we will be pleased to support them.

The city needs them both.

around, it made the grade.

We hasten to add, so that Postmaster Jim Hurley and his crew at the local office won't get upset, that the card both times was mailed in San Jose, according to the cancellation.

In fact there were three such cancellations: The original, Dec. 20; then the one sending it back to the writer and then the final one.

There is some sort of a moral here, we think, if we could find it.

ONE OF THE MOST AVID readers of The Press over the years has been Mrs. Jeannie Sheehy, deputy city clerk.

She is also one of our biggest boosters. But she loves to give us a bad time, if something appears that is a little bit out of the way.

That way she keeps us on our toes.

Take last week for example.

Our Jeannie found a little gem in the classified columns under "homes for rent". The ad offered.."water and garbage" furnished.

Jeannie was interested (she said) in finding out what kind of garbage was being furnished.

ANOTHER STORY in the paper reported that the Campbell branch of Wells Fargo was, as it had in past years, again issuing vehicle registrations.

After the story had been run, Jack Payne, bank manager, informed us that this registration service had been transferred this year to the Cupertino branch of Wells Fargo by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Apparently the left hand of the department didn't let the right hand know what had occurred. The news release from the Department of Motor Vehicles, our source of information, listed the Campbell branch.

As you can imagine, there were a number of phone calls on this and Jack's money emporium was bothered by a number of people trying to get their cars registered locally.

We are sorry if we caused any inconvenience.

In fact we were all ready to get our own car registered in town, when we get the word from Jack.

You win a few and you lose a few.

A FEW PEOPLE, who had been involved in the activities of the Chamber of Commerce over the past years, took exception to our editorial of last week in which we said in part:

"...During 1966 we are convinced also that the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will forego its long dormant role in the community and become the active, aggressive and progressive organization that the community has long needed...

"Under the management of Jim Duffield and dedicated group of directors, the Chamber appears now ready to lead the way as a co-partner with the city administration in the building of a better community."

As editorials go we thought it wasn't bad, although there were a couple of typographical errors in it that made us cringe.

The council in its action directed the staff to work out with the applicant a redesign for the parking area that would be affected by the ingress driveway.

In another action affecting the future of Winchester, the Council directed Wren to develop details on the possibility of forming a local improvement district for the widening of the east side of Winchester Blvd.

The action followed Wren's report to the council in order to determine the council's policy as to how improvements could be made through the dedication of land on the east side.

Storm drain job on Budd Ave. to go to bid

Authorization for the calling for bids for installing storm drains on Budd Ave. prior to the improvement of the street was made by the City Council Monday night.

Bill Wren, acting city engineer, said that it was estimated that the project would cost about $9000. He said that Sanitation District No. 4 was cooperating and planned to install sewer lines in the same area at the same time. It was estimated that the sewer job would be $20,000.

The City Council Monday also approved the revised questionaire and survey that will be undertaken by the Parks and Recreation Commission at the end of the month.

The commission hopes to obtain the feeling of the citizens as to park and recreation expansion within the city and whether the citizens would financially support such a program through a bond issue or increased taxes.

Basically we were not referring to personalities in the editorial or criticizing past performances. We are looking ahead. Is that bad?

We recognize that just keeping the C. of C. in existence in the past was a big job and in the last few years the C. of C. has shown many signs of awakening.

But we sincerely believe that we are on the threshhold of a new and progressive era in our community and the C. of C. should play a bigger role in it than it has in the past.

Provided, of course, that we don't get too thin-skinned about the whole bit.

But we can't win 'em all.

said that DeVilbis had not replied to any communications his office and other city departments had sent him with respect to compliance to the conditions.

The action on the delay in the San Tomas Expressway, intitiated by Councilman Homer Hyde and enthusiastically endorsed by his fellow councilmen, followed a report by Bill Wren, acting city engineer, on the status of the expressway construction.

Wren reported that, according to his information, the completion of the four-lane bridge on Campbell Ave. would not be before April. He said that the contractor had explained that the November rain and inclement weather since had thrown the construction schedule out of line.

The councilmen were particularly incensed over the fact that the city had cooperated on the Hamilton Ave. project as well as Campbell Ave. in order to complete the city's part in time. They felt it was grossly unfair to the city to have such a long delay.

They were particularly concerned over the condition of the temporary two-lane crossing now in existence on Campbell Ave. and the worse than temporary "dry-creek fording" on Budd Ave.

They emphasized that the closing of Latimer and Rincon had worked a hardship on the city and immediate action was necessary to alleviate the situation.

Councilman Ralph Doetsch was directed to bring the matter to the attention of the Trafficways Committee and letters were authorized to other county agencies involved.

Dick Hardy, who stepped into the presidency of the C. of C. when Ron Tharp, of IBM, was transferred, has been reelected president to serve in 1966 and he will preside at the dinner. Gene Kelley, vice-president and Bill Oltmann, treasurer, also have been re-elected.

Nine new directors have been elected to supplement the six-carryover board members for an augmented board of 15. The directors will also be installed on Jan. 20.

Campbell teachers ask duty-free lunch hour

The Campbell Elementary Teachers' Association will present a proposal to the Campbell Union District Board of Trustees that teachers be granted a lunch period free of duty at the next Board meeting on Thursday, Jan. 13, at 7 o'clock in the district office.

The Teachers Association pointed out that many California school districts have already responded to the waste of energies of highly trained personnel by providing lower-cost, non-certificated staffs to supervise children during the noon period.

The teachers argue that if educating children is recognized as a profession, teachers should be placed on a professional level, and that they deserve an adequate, restful lunch period free from the duty of supervising the children.

The estimated annual cost of this program would be $2.20 per pupil or $1.10 for the remaining half year.

Driver shears light standards

A San Jose man, Edgar Arnold Jones, 22, 1117 Owlsey, sheared off two street light standards, a speed limit sign and a U.S. Mail drop last Friday morning as he lost control of his car on West Campbell Avenue between Victor and Via D'este. He suffered only minor cuts in the accident.

According to a report made by Campbell Police Sgt. John Butler, Jones' car left the roadway on Campbell Avenue near Victor where he hit a light standard and a speed limit sign and then swerved to the corner of Via d' Ests where he struck another light standard and a U.S. Mail drop. Jones was thrown from the car but was not hurt seriously. He refused medical attention. Campbell Police are investigating.

OLD SETTLERS
The Editor
Campbell Press

That was the year we lost our Teddy Roosevelt Redwood...the year we gave up on old settlers...

The Teddy Roosevelt Redwood--what was that? Old Settlers--who are they? Old Settlers Day Parade. Remember, children and old settlers? Yes! "I marched in the parade when I was in Cubs," "I rode the prize-winning Palomino when I was seven," "My dad sold snow cones during the parade last year," "My mom sat next to the very oldest Old Settler at the luncheon," and "My cousin was Queen!" Some lucky little girl has great grandparents who led the parade honoring those who established our city.

Doesn't this bind us together somehow? Let's not forfeit this great family tradition. It is worth a community effort--Chamber of Commerce, civic and service clubs, churches, social and neighborhood groups. It might gain momentum if the Campbell Press were to conduct an essay contest among Campbell school children (with an appropriate prize--perhaps being crowned Prince or Princess of the festivities) on "What the Old Settlers Festival Means to Me."

Waiting and preparing for the parade, the queen contest, the carnival--such exciting anticipation is an integral part of growing up in Campbell. Let's keep this alive for our children and our senior citizens, for they are the ones who give substance to the community.

Does anyone care to deepen community roots by perpetuating and encompassing tradition in the life of Campbell?

Some of us care.
We really do.
I love my town!
How about you?

BLASTS BOARD
Editor:

The action of the Board of Supervisors last week appointing a new Sheriff seems to me to be a cynical display of their disregard of the political process in county government.

Last June 22, I revealed that such a "deal" was in the making. At that time, the sheriff replied to my charge that, "God willing," he planned to serve out the remainder of his term.

The sheriff's appearance before the board to tender his resignation did not appear on the agenda and the public consequently had no intimation that they would be "presented" with a new sheriff.

If the Board had simply refused to appoint a successor immediately, their brazeness would not have been so apparent. Politically, they should have appointed an "acting" sheriff, and then gone through the mechanics of searching for "the best possible successor."

Interestingly, the same board is showing a little more finesse in looking for a new Director of the Department of Social Welfare. I think they are conducting a nationwide search!

The point of the matter is that the office of sheriff is elective. Consequently, the voters of this county would have been given a choice of candidates for that office this coming June.

The board's sheriff will campaign now with the label of "incumbent" under his name. From a practical, political point of view, the board has given the new Sheriff a "gimmick" which has an estimated "cash value" in this county of $20,000 to $25,000. As sad as it is, that is the amount of campaign money which will be needed to overcome the political advantage of the "incumbent" label.

Unfortunately, the whole board does not stand for election this June. Only three members of the board who were parties are up for re-election. It is hoped that the voters in the districts "served" by Mssrs. Mehrkens, Quinn, and Sanchez will question these men on this matter.

In conclusion, my concern in this matter is not dictated by any political ambitions on my part. Some time ago, I had decided not to be a candidate for sheriff again. In fact, at the time of the election I will no longer even be a resident of the county, and consequently I will not be eligible to be a candidate.

College board okays movable classroom plans

West Valley College governing board last week approved working drawings and specifications for 20,000 square feet of relocatable classroom buildings to be needed on its temporary campus site in Campbell at the beginning of the next academic year.

The plans, prepared by the Los Gatos architectural firm of Higgins and Root, will be submitted immediately to the State Department of Education and the Division of Architecture. Bid opening subject to approval by the state agencies will be on or about March 10 and completion is expected about July 15.

The trustees approved financial claims totaling $912,385. This sum included $748,011 tuition payments, largely to San Jose City College and Foothill College, for students from the West Valley district in attendance at other junior college districts last year.

Also included was a transfer of $100,000 from the general fund to the special reserve fund. Dr. Wallace W. Hall, district superintendent, pointed out that the transfer was a routine one, inasmuch as a special reserve fund of $1.5 million had been set up at the beginning of this fiscal year, and thus far only $900,000 had been transferred to the reserve account.

Campbell High School District checks on its 1965 graduates

Campbell Union High School District graduates of 1965 where are you?

That's the cry out now from the district offices, following sending out of a questionnaire to all those who graduated from the six high schools in the district in 1965.

Laurence J. Hill, district superintendent, said that Dr. Wade W. Schroeder, district director of guidance, has compiled and sent out the questionnaire, which is a follow-up to a similar questionnaire filled in last June by those students graduating.

Dr. Schroeder said the present questionnaire is the first phase of a three-year follow-up of former students of the class of 1965 to:

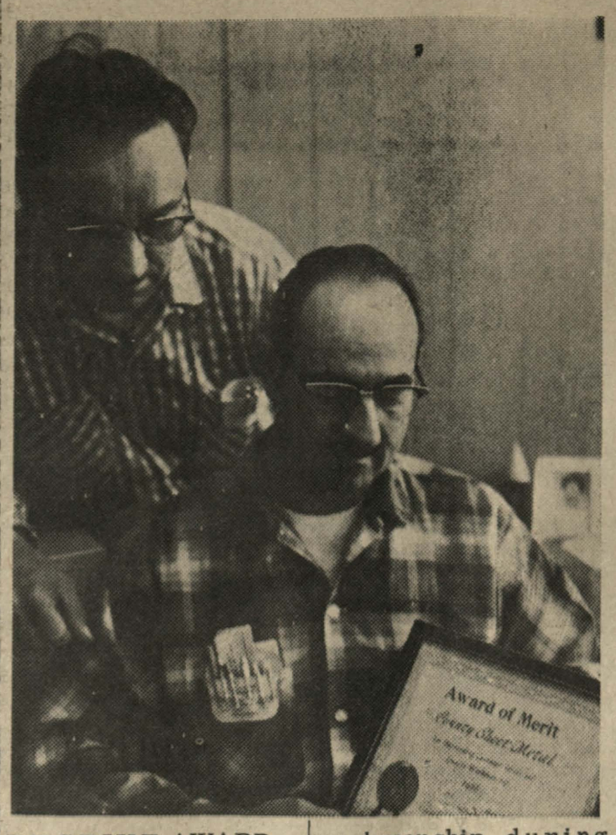
1). Provide information that will be of value to curriculum planners, administration and teachers attempting to identify needed invocation and modification of the school program.

2). Gain knowledge of the success and satisfaction of the district's ex-students, which is just as important to the district as it is to a private company seeking to gain knowledge of customer reaction and success of a manufactured product.

The questionnaire seeks to obtain judgments from the students about certain aspects of the school program--its values, its shortcomings, in the light of the new experience of the ex-students in college or in industry.

Plans are underway to continue the study by following this same group of students for two additional years.

Dr. Schroeder urged those receiving the questionnaires to complete them and return them to the school district as soon as possible.



RECEIVE AWARD--George Rodriquez (standing) and Luke Cardenas, co-owners of County Sheet Metal, 150 Harrison, Campbell, admire the certificate of award they recently received from Home Builders Institute of America. The award was given for outstanding customer service and quality workmanship during 1965. Of the four awards that firms in northern California received, the local firm was the only sheet metal and air conditioning business to be so honored. The other awards went to general contractors. It was presented by Bay Area Building Reporter.

Tree doctor must come to aid of ailing old oak

Is there a doctor in the house? For trees, that is.

That was apparently what was needed at the City Council meeting Monday during the otherwise routine adoption procedure of a zoning change for the Leep Homes tract which borders on San Tomas Creek, the line between Campbell and Saratoga.

Residents of Saratoga had attended previous meetings of the council and planning commission to protest the zone change and to emphasize the need for keeping all the trees in the area.

Both the commission and council had previously specified that all trees in the tract would be saved wherever practical.

Before the vote on the zoning change, it was brought out at the meeting that someone had come onto the property in question last weekend and began cutting one of the oak trees before being stopped.

That was where it developed that a tree surgeon was necessary to ascertain whether the cut-tree wounds could be healed.

Again carrying the ball for the Saratoga group was Richard Cummins who had investigated the tree-cutting when he heard the buzz-saw take off.

Elwood Leep, of Leep Homes, told the council that the tree-cutter had trespassed and he asked the city police to patrol the area to eliminate any further such trouble. He said that he would get a tree surgeon to look at the wounded tree and again emphasized that he would do everything to save all the trees.

Apparently satisfied that the tree matter was settled for the time being at least, the council proceeded to adopt the ordinance.

Another ordinance adopted was for a zone change for the Phillip Rose property from R-1 to R-D (duplex) at 1110 Hacienda.

This week's column will consider the alternative of complete and unconditional withdrawal of U.S. forces from Vietnam, a condition demanded by North Vietnam and sincerely supported by some Americans.

First, we must attempt the impossible and delve into the minds and inner consciences of the Viet Cong and the Communists. If we can honestly assume they would have no further aggressive intentions and would content themselves with the control of Vietnam, then the argument is over.

If, on the other hand, we assume that there is no limit to Communist ambitions to control human beings and geography, then the chain reaction which would be set in motion by our complete withdrawal must be considered.

Geography makes Vietnam a valuable military prize. It outflanks all of Southeast Asia and is rich in strategic materials. Its lush rice bowls will support at least three more Communist Armies in food-deficient Communist China, and it would make possible the Communist domination of more than 300 million additional people.

Already Ho Chi Minh controls large areas of Laos and the remainder would certainly go by default if South Vietnam were to go Communist. Cambodia has clearly indicated her Communist leanings and has been furnishing sanctuary for the Viet Cong.

Thailand, probably our truest nation of friends in Asia, has already been advertised as a target for Communist infiltration, insurgency and conquest. The pressure of a house of cards falling about it would certainly be too much.

Though Britain, after 12 years, conquered the Malaysian guerillas, many of them infiltrated the part of Thailand which stretches down the Malaysian Peninsula and are hiding today waiting for a Communist victory in South Vietnam.

If Malaysia is controlled, the Communists would dominate the Strati of Malacca, one of the half dozen vital shipping lanes in the world. Closing Malacca, which transits more than 12,000 ships each year, would be a fatal blow to India, the Philippines and Japan.

Burma would then be almost defenseless and Indonesia, with its left-leaning Sukarno, could control the communication lines between the Philippines and Australia.

Japan, the world's most industrialized nation, would be faced with closed shipping lanes from the Strait of Malacca and the Philippines and would be finished unless she turned to Red China. And the fate of Korea would be even worse.

If these assumptions are valid, there is a final question to be answered in considering withdrawal as a policy: Is the United States prepared to co-exist in a world where all of Asia and the front gate of the world's greatest undeveloped continent--Australia--are controlled by the Chinese Communists?

And further are we prepared to co-exist with a Communist China which, in addition to such power, will have a nuclear weapon in a few years and the means of delivering it?

On a diet? Join T.O.P.S.

Girls, wives, mothers, are you interested in losing weight and would you like some company while you're on that diet? A group of local women have started a chapter of T. O. P. S. (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) which may be an inspiration to other neighborhood groups.

The Charm Achievers Chapter of T. O. P. S. meets weekly at the home of Mrs. D. Jacobsen, 3873 Via Milano, Campbell. The meeting plan follows a schedule such as this: On arrival, WEIGH IN. (An accurate scale is an absolute necessity.) ROLL CALL: each member tells how much they have gained or lost during the past week. Program chairman will then present the evening's subject, - such as a demonstration of a particular exercise - a new recipe for a low calorie meal. No refreshments are served except coffee.

The master plan for this organization was originated by Mrs. Esther Manz, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The idea has spread all over the nation.

Once a member has reached his best weight he must then maintain it for three months. After that another club, K. O. P. S. (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly) is formed by these members which meets monthly. This group gets together to remind each other to keep their weight down and to follow a sensible diet. Anyone interested in starting a chapter of T. O. P. S. is invited to call Mrs. Davidsen at 378-0168 for further information.

New Books at the Campbell Library

A GIFT OF LAUGHTER, the Autogiography of Allan Sherman

On Aug. 6, 1962, Allan Sherman, an unemployed television producer, picked up his weekly relief check at the Hollywood office of the state unemployment agency. Later in the day he recorded an album of folk song parodies at a studio. Eight weeks later it was released as My Son, the Folk Singer. Sherman awoke to find himself rich and famous.

A Gift of Laughter is many things. It is a so-called show-business autobiography; yet it is like no earlier specimen of this genre, for it is brave and honest and relentlessly unsparing of everything--including Allan Sherman. For Sherman takes nothing seriously, least of all himself.

POWER'S HUMAN FACE, A Unique American History by Arthur T. Hadley

What happens when a former White House correspondent familiar with today's power struggle turns his insight on history? A fascinating and unique book happens! It is an intimate study in the use of power and its effect upon fifteen Presidents from Jefferson to Truman. The author employs an original method to let major figures tell their own story in their own words as taken from their speeches, letters, public papers, private documents and diaries.

..."AND THEN I TOLD THE PRESIDENT", The Secret Papers of Art Buchwald

In his book Columnist Art Buchwald reveals how he personally solved most of the crucial issues of our times. With the modesty that has always been associated with him, he reveals the role he played in helping mold "The Great Society." "Lyndon Johnson was a big help to me," Mr. Buchwald says. "And he deserves a great deal of credit for anything that I accomplished."

WARRIOR WAYS

BY LYNDA WYCKOFF

AFTER A TWO week Christmas vacation most every one was ready to get back into the swing of things at Westmont. Now after weeks of the "grind" the greater population of Westmont High is looking forward to the next vacation.

Petitions for Student Council have been turned in and the candidates introduced to the school. The council campaign is really underway.

Westmont Debs are busily preparing for a lovely ball which is to be held on Jan. 22 in the cafetorium. Other Debs from schools in our district will be invited and the theme of the event is to be "Nite Tide." The colors will be blue and green.

Tomorrow night the Debs are featuring a sock hop to be held in the cafetorium after the Basketball Game with Campbell High. The cost will be 25 cents without student body card.

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK
BOB GUNTER

Bob is a Junior at Westmont this year and very active in school affairs. He is a member of Pep Band, Dance Band, Concert Orchestra, Concert Band, Chamber Choir, and Madragals.

Bob was chosen for the Santa Clara County Honor Band as the drummer. He has been playing drums for ten years.

Bob would like to become a professional musician or teach music in a college. He plans to attend Ohio State University when he graduates from Westmont.

Bob maintains a B average and is very interested in Math. He ran Cross Country this year and plans to go out for football in the spring.

XXXXX

Westmont's great Basketball team is just starting the season and hopes to see all of you out there supporting them. Be sure not to miss any of these fantastic games!

High schools open league play

BUC BANTER

BY MARY KNOWLES

The first assembly of the new year was presented last Friday. It was a combination of a rally and an assembly. The topic of our rally-assembly was Spirit. Principal Robert Culp, spoke, the cheerleaders and song girls were introduced to the Student Body, and the retiring and new Student Body Presidents spoke. Coach Bert Robinson introduced the members of the basketball team and gave demonstrations of various plays for which fouls are called. The students were then excused to their classes.

After the assembly I spoke to several students about whether they had gained anything from it. The general consensus of opinion was that the topic of the assembly was good and timely, but that it was poorly presented and unorganized.

The Student Body officers for the spring semester were elected Friday, Dec. 17. For those of you who may not know who these officers are, they are: President, Richard Salciccia; Vice-President, Weston Clark, and Walt Ritter, Al Shimizu and Jim Chamberlin as councilmen.

Our A Cappella Choir under the direction of Larry McCommas is now working on the "Lord Nelson Mass" by Joseph Hayden. It is a difficult piece of some 80 pages and is being learned for the Spring Festival.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week, auditions were held for this year's musical "Camelot". Dance auditions were held last Saturday.

Notes from Vacation-GERRI PHILLIPS spent Christmas holidays in Arizona

Westmont-Here, 3:30.

Jan. 15 - Wrestling Tournament, Hayward, 10 a.m.

Jan. 18 - Varsity and Frosh/Soph Basketball, Los Gatos, There, 3:30.

HAROLD BAIN had his brother, Howard, a '64 graduate of Campbell High home for the holidays. CASSIE TAUL, our journalism teacher, was snowed in at a ski resort during part of Christmas, and CHRISTINA MOTMANS, our dean, had an operation recently.

Coming Events--

Jan. 13 - JV Basketball - Westmont - Here, 3:30.

Jan. 14 - Frosh/Soph & Varsity Basketball - Westmont-There, 7:00.

Jan. 14 - Wrestling - Del Mar downed Westmont 60-55, although the Dons trailed 9-8 at the start of the second quarter.

Del Mar had a 27-13 halftime lead but Westmont closed the gap to 44-37 at the end of the third quarter. Anderson of the Warriors took high point honors with 20 points for his team with Bill Drozkiak scoring the same number. Dick Burton of the Warriors gathered 13.

West Valley Athletic League members opened the 1966 basketball league schedule last Friday night with Blackford, Leigh, Del Mar and Camden scoring vitories.

Camden defeated Campbell 44-38 after recovering from a three-point halftime deficit. The Cougars were down 23-20 at the intermission. But they came out on top when Terry Dwyer sank six straight points with only 1:40 left to play.

Campbell's Don Hahn and Gary Paske hit 10 points each.

Blackford, defending champs, sank Los Gatos 59-36. Blackford had a 27-11 lead at halftime. Dennis Awtrey, Blackford's 6-9 center, scored 24 points in the game while Ron Green hit for 14.

Leigh, after a 19-point scoring splurge, coasted to a 64-36 win over Saratoga. Butch King paced the scorers with 14 and Wayne Watkins had 12.

Westmont loses first WVAL game to Del Mar

Westmont's Varsity Basketballers unsuccessfully began WVAL play by dropping a 60-55 heartbreaker to a fastbreaking Del Mar team on the Don's home court, Jan. 7.

Westmont jumped off to an early 6-0 lead in the first five and a half minutes before the Dons could find the hoop. However, they pulled to within 9-8 by the first period's end and outscored the Warriors 19-4 in the second quarter to take a 27-13 lead.

Employing new strategy at the start of the second half, Warrior Coach Gary Brinck replaced Gary Porter with Bruce Anderson. Anderson, in his first varsity action, scored a phenomenal 20 points, playing mostly underneath an offense and forced several breaks with inspired defense. The Warriors, with clutch efforts by Anderson and Roy Grillo, pecked away and trailed just 44-37 going into the final stanza.

Del Mar saw their lead shrivel to 2, at 49-47, when Anderson muscled in a basket after forcing a traveling call. But Bill Drozdiak, the Don's fine center, then took command as the Warriors surge wasn't quite enough to catch Del Mar, which finally prevailed 60-55.

BLACKFORD BEAT

BY DIANE GIPSON CAROL COOK

Last week was the first week back to school for the students at Blackford. I sincerely hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Blackford's Varsity basketball team participated in the annual Sunnyvale Tournament over Christmas vacation. We played in the finals against San Carlos but lost in overtime by a score of 74-72.

Also in the field of sports, the Varsity team played Los Gatos last Friday in our first league game. The game was held on our courts and we won by a score of 59-36. Dennis Awtry, Blackford's 6'9" All-American, scored 24 points for the Braves.

Next Friday the Braves Varsity team meets Westmont on their courts. Immediately following the game, there will be a dance held in the Blackford cafetorium.

Tuesday, Jan. 4, marked the end of the A.F.S. Candy Sale. The profits from the sale will go to support the A.F.S. foreign exchange student at Blackford.

Thursday, Jan. 6, was Senior Dress-Up Day at Blackford. All of the seniors looked really great!

The spring semester student council election will be held within the next few weeks. The petitions were to be turned in by Friday, Jan. 7.

Junior, Marsha Hampton was crowned Christmas Queen at the annual Christmas Ball held Dec. 17. Marsha was crowned by Student Body Vice-President Scott Martin.

A spaghetti dinner will be held Wednesday, Jan. 19, by the Parent Teachers Association. A portion of the proceeds will go towards a new scoreboard for the bowl. Prices are $1.25 per adult and 75 cents per child under 12.

Del Mar held its annual canned food drive the last week before Christmas vacation. The drive was sponsored by the senior boys service club, Amatrix Fhidilis. The food was distributed to needy families in the area.

Spirit points were given to the winning class. Seniors came in first, with the sophomores, juniors and freshmen following in that order.

Two Del Mar graduates, attending Santa Clara University School of Business, made the Dean's Honor Roll for the fall quarter. Larry Dunlap, '63 graduate made the top 15 per cent of the student body. Larry also is a regular starter on the Bronco Varsity basketball team. Now a junior, he plays first string forward. Robert Anderson was the other U.M. graduate to win honors.

Tom Greenly, '65 graduate, received the award for outstanding back in freshman football at the University of California at Davis. Robert Hausman, senior, is a semi-finalist in the Hertz Engineering Scholarship Foundation. In order to apply for this scholarship the student must be able to acquire an education in the college of their choice.

The Sophomore Girl's Service Club held a toy drive for orphans during the Christmas holidays. The drive ended successfully on Dec. 17.

The Blackford-Del Mar math contest, held on Dec. 15, ended in a 112 to 102 victory for Del Mar. There was about 40 Blackford students to 24 Del Mar students. Del Mar's high scorer was junior, Paul Egerman, with 18 out of 20 correct.

Del Mar came back to win the last three games to capture the consolation trophy at the eight annual Sunnyvale Holiday Tournament. Junior, Bill Drozdiak spearheaded Del Mar's powerful offense with a 26 point pre-game average and was named to the all-tournament team.

Del Mar captured the second annual Frosh-Soph basketball tournament championship with a 41-33 victory, over arch-rival Camden.

Del Mar's Junior Varsity basketball team opened their league play last Wednesday, Jan. 4.

THE FESTIVE POTTED PLANTS

Bring a gaily blooming azalea plant into any room and that room takes on an instant "party look." The same thing happens with potted chrysanthemums, poinsettias or cyclamen. They're naturally festive plants.

African violets, with their dainty, ruffled flowers sitting primly above neat, low mounds of leaves, create a charming, spring-like mood. Foliage plants such as dieffenbachia, Zebra Plant, Norfolk Island Pine, or glamorous little palms bring the outdoors in and make spectacular party props as well as family "pets."

According to the California Association of Nurserymen, there are dozens of decorative plants that enjoy life indoors, and caring for them there is easy if you follow a few simple rules.

Just remember that conditions that are comfortable for people are also healthful for most plants. No plant likes temperatures any warmer than we do; a few like cyclamen like it a bit cooler; and African Violets can live in the same room with people who enjoy a cozy 72 degrees. A drop of 10 degrees in temperatures at night is ideal.

Plants need light in the daytime, just as people do, but most of them don't enjoy baking in a sunny window. Poinsettias are an exception to this, as they are happy in the direct sun and want to be kept out of drafts. An azalea, on the other hand, will keep blooming a long time if you give it plenty of daylight but no direct sun. A dark spot that needs brightening is ideal for many foliage plants such as ferns because they don't need much light to look their best.

House plants get thirstier than the ones outdoors and must be watered regularly. How much watering they should have depends on the individual variety. No matter how much water your house plants like, don't let excess water stand around in the saucer underneath.

Giving a house plant an occasional shower bath under the spray at the kitchen sink will clean dust from the foliage and provide a pleasant interval of humidity.

There is nothing like a brightly flowered plant to liven up the living room on a dull winter day. The choice at this time of the year is exceptional, according to the California Association of Nurserymen.

Thanks to the growers of potted chrysanthemums, you can buy a plant in perfect flower any day of the year--and winter is no exception. There is a wide range of colors to choose from, so matching your decor is a joy instead of a chore!

The thrifty gardener will use the four or five plants in the pot for his garden after the flowers are spent indoors--but be sure they go in full sun outdoors!

Winter days can be blessed by the bright flowers of cyclamen. They can be obtained in many sizes from your local nurseryman, beginning with four-inch pots and ranging up to big plants in six-inch pots.

The four or five flowers carried jauntily above the interesting rounded leaves are only a preview of what is to come. Part the leaves and see the little buds rising from the "bulb." They will keep a succession of blooms coming for weeks. Important thing is to never let your cyclamen get thirsty. Water daily!

Later, you will want to set the plant in the shady part of your garden. Cyclamen drops its leaves and becomes dormant in summer, comes out fresh in fall, blooms again in winter.

The Belgian Indica azaleas like to flower when days are short. Their large, semi-double blooms are massed on flat-topped plants with dark green foliage, in shades of white, pink, pink and white and red. Plunge the pot in deep water for a few minutes after purchase, then water daily to keep in tip-top condition.

THEATER CLOSING

In Rome as early as 400 A. D., an imperial decree ordered theaters to be closed on Christmas.

State engineer explains how tire chain installing works

The operation and responsibilities of individuals who offer to install tire chains for motorists traveling the snow country in various parts of California have been explained by State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack.

He said these men are allowed, by Division of Highways permit, to put on or take off chains for pay at designated chain control points. This is authorized by legislative action contained in the State Streets and Highways Code.

Womack emphasized that these men are not employed by the highway division, but are allowed to work on the right of way because of the need many motorists have for this service.

This practice is the best known arrangement for the orderly movement of traffic through snow regions when "Chains Required" signs are up, Womack said.

Local commercial concerns, of course, can also get chaining permits. State flagmen and chain control points are, when possible, placed at locations where local businesses will not be deprived of possible revenue in catering to motorists' needs.

The Division of Highways chief said he has received a few letters from persons dissatisfied with either the service or the price charged by some independent chain men.

One motorist wrote that he paid six dollars to have chains installed on his car and then after he had traveled a few feet and one fell off, he was charged an additional two dollars by the same man to fix his own mistake. Other complaints ranged from tire damage due to improperly mounted chains to thefts of chains.

The Division of Highways does not set any fees but leaves it up to the individual to make an agreement with the chain man. These men are prohibited from selling chains or other items on the right of way.

"Before agreeing to let anyone sell you something or perform a service, you should make sure you know how much you are going to pay," Womack declared, "and this policy is quite important in dealing with someone at a chain control station.

In commending the majority of chain men, Womack declared that only a small minority abuse their permit privilege, and that most perform good work at a fair price.

Womack pointed out that the Streets and Highways Code states that the Division of Highways "in issuing such permits shall assume no responsibility as to the competence or reliability of the permittee."

Favorite recipes from our Campbell readers

Here is a recipe for Cream Puffs filled with French Custard; another time try ice cream, cocoa cream or pudding from a package. Spoon on rich Chocolate Sauce and sprinkle with nuts. Pass extra sauce. Time a-flying? This is a delicious dessert for company or family.

CREAM PUFFS
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup boiling water
1 cup sifted enriched flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 eggs

Melt butter in boiling water. Add flour and salt all at once, stir vigorously. Cook, stirring constantly, till mixture forms a ball that doesn't separate. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Add eggs, one at a time, beating vigorously after each until smooth.

Drop dough by heaping tablespoons 3 inches apart on greased cookie sheet. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees) 15 minutes, then in slow oven (325) for 25 minutes. Remove cream puffs from oven, split. Turn oven off and put cream puffs back in oven to dry out, about 20 minutes. Cool on rack. Just before serving, fill centers with a custard filling (package type); replace tops; drizzle with Chocolate Sauce, sprinkle chopped nuts atop. Makes about 10 big puffs.

CHOS
CHOCOLATE SAUCE
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
3 1-ounce squares unsweetened chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine syrup, sugar and water in sauce pan; bring to boiling. Add chocolate and stir until melted. Simmer over low heat 10 to 15 minutes, or until smooth, stirring occasionally. Add vanilla. Cool. Makes about 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Bryan Green, Rector of Birmingham, England, both the Youth and Adult sessions will run for six consecutive weeks. Father Carson and Dr Orval Bacci, local Gynocologist and Obstetrician, will monitor the discussions to follow each filmed presentation.

For a Senior High youth to qualify for the course, one parent must attend the adult sessions.

HOW TO BE A JEWISH MOTHER
by Dan Greenburg

You don't have to be either Jewish or a mother to be a Jewish Mother. An Irish waitress or an Italian barber could also be a Jewish Mother. Properly practiced, Jewish motherhood is an art - a complex network of subtle and highly sophisticated techniques, which may be mastered by anyone. This "very lovely training manual" by Dan Greenburg illustrates his delightful, perceptive and wildly funny expose of motherhood - and is written for anyone who has ever been, known or had a mother.

HUMPHREY BOGART, The Man and His Films
by Paul Michael

This book presents a close-up of the man who became a legend and the films that made the legend grow. It provides an intimate look at Bogart - born to luxury, actor on Broadway, film novice, top money making star, sailor, husband and father, and idol to moviegoers the world over. There are more than 100 photographs of Bogart in scenes from everyone of the 75 films that he made during his career. Accompanying the photographs there is, for each film, a concise synopsis of the story and the complete cast.

PG & E plans $1 million each working day for construction

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. will continue throughout 1966 its present record construction spending level of more than $1 million every working day, Board Chairman Robert H. Gerdes has reported.

Gerdes announced an estimated expenditure of $279 million for new facilities during the year ahead. He said the program will:

*Keep gas and electric capacity well ahead of Northern and Central California growth.

*Provide jobs for more than 7,600 men and stimulate local business through payrolls and materials purchases.

*Substantially add to the local tax base supporting schools and local governments.

At the end of 1965 PG&E will have generating capacity of more than eight million kilowatts in service, passing a new milestone. The company will continue construction on more than one and a half million kilowatts of additional new electric capacity.

PG&E also is seeking 200 million cubic feet per day of additional natural gas from Alberta, Canada. The first half of this new supply is planned for delivery beginning late in 1966, Gerdes said. Canada already has approved the export and Federal Power Commission authorization is being awaited.

The added gas will be a 50% increase over present daily deliveries from this source. It will bring the company's peak day send-out capacity to more than three and a fourth billion cubic feet in 24 hours.

Large gas construction projects planned for 1966 include 25 miles of 30 and 24 inch main from Hollister to Moss Landing and 17 miles of 24 inch main in Solano and Contra Costa Counties.

Gerdes said a major part of the PG&E effort during the year will be devoted to the construction of more than 1,000 miles of 500,000 volt power transmission lines extending from Siskiyou County to Kern County.

Initial operation at 500,000 volts over parts of the huge new system will begin in 1967 and the entire program will be completed in 1968. It includes transformers and switching equipment of new design at seven large substations.

Construction also will rise toward a peak at Moss Landing Power Plant, Gerdes said. These units are more than twice as big as PG&E's largest existing generating units and will generate the lowest cost steam-generated electric power on the system, he said.

The first new Moss Landing Unit is scheduled for operation in 1967 and the second in 1968. On completion of both new units the Moss Landing Power Plant will have a total capacity of 2,113,000 kilowatts - enough to serve four cities the size of San Francisco. The two units will be the largest in capacity west of the Mississippi River.

CUB PACK 377

Cub Pack 377 will hold a father-son cake auction at the January Pack Meeting. Mothers and daughters will depart the kitchen and leave the culinary artistry to fathers and brothers. The end results are often quite remarkable.

Cub Pack 377 held its Christmas party at Hazelwood School. Den 2 was awarded the inspection and attendance honors. Shirley Gish was introduced as a new Den Mother, and Lowell Stout, Cubmaster, presented awards to the following boys: Den 1: Leonard MacDonald, Lions badge and Webelos patch. Den 2: Steven McDonald, Bear badge; Jeff Capodice, assistant denner. Den 5: Chris Poulson, Lion badge and Webelos patch. Den 6: Charles Stokes, denner; Vernon Turner, assistant denner; Jeff Mathis, Lion badge and Webelos patch; Skip Reed, denner.

Larry Gish and Gary Romeo were invested as Bob Cats. Three boys, Duane White, Ray Killian and Jeff Mathis were awarded their Arrows of Lights and accepted into Troop 377 by Scout Master Chuck Forbes. Den 5 led the singing of Christmas Carols followed by the appearance of Santa Claus who presented candy to all the children.

CUB PACK 379

Power failure did not dampen the spirits of Cub Pack 379 at their Christmas Party at Hamilton School. Just as they were about to open the party with a fan fair - total darkness. With the aid of car headlights and flashlights Den 2 presented the opening. Den 4 gave a Chrstmas action story and the awards were then presented by Cubmaster Duane Bagley. There were exhibits of projects and achievements on display and the boxes of food the boys had decorated for needy families.

Power was restored, however, in time for Den 7 to lead Christmas Carols and announce - with the singing of Jingle Bells - Santa Claus, who passed out candy to all children, young and old alike.

Den 2 closed with a poem "The Night Before Christmas, Texas Style", that is, and wished everyone "Merry Christmas, You All."

53-minute march for cerebral palsy

An estimated 13,000 men and women will engage in the annual "53-Minute March" for the benefit of United Cerebral Palsy Association of Santa Clara County Thursday through Sunday this week.

"Our volunteers march so that children crippled with cerebral palsy may someday walk," according to Edward S. Walsh of Los Gatos, president of United Cerebral Palsy Association of Santa Clara County.

Volunteers, representing a diversified cross-section of community life will call house-to-house throughout the county in the annual fund-raising appeal, goal of which is $60,000 this year.

Funds derived from the local drive will be used for continuing research on a nationwide basis into finding causes of and cures for the dread brain disease; and for continuing operations of three day-care centers.
